1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: Specification and claims to be amended as two words are joined together at various places in the application, which appears to be typographical mistakes, such as "setand", "anda", in claim 1, line 2 and 4, etc.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: A symmetric electrical connection system for connecting a first component at a first node to second component at a third node, wherein the first conducting wire and the third conductive wire are symmetric with respect to a symmetry point and the second conductive wire and fourth conductive wire are symmetric with respect to the symmetry point and wherein the first conductive wire, the second conductive wire, the third conductive wire and the fourth conductive wires are interconnected, as claimed has not been disclosed or suggested by prior art of record alone or in combination.

The closest art located by the examiner are:

Baum, US Patent No. 6,396,000, in figure 5, discloses traces a circuit board with cable set (110) with traces (112 and 114) on first and second layer. However, does not discloses a symmetry about a point and also they are not interconnected and also they are not interconnected.

Roth et al., US Patent No. 6,504,246, in figure 2, discloses a twist configuration of a differential pair of signal lines (BL and BLB), but does not disclose the concept of symmetry around a symmetry point and those lines are not interconnected.

Similarly, Noda et al., US Patent No. 6,057,512, in figure 4-7 and Schlessel, US Patent No. 3,757,028, in figure 1, disclose circuit board with traces on two layers, but do not disclose the structure as claimed by the applicant.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
